

Transforming Conflict — Creating Peace

Saturday 16th & Sunday 17th July 2016

Banyule Community Health Centre

A two-day workshop 9.00am – 5.00pm both days.

What do you do when you feel annoyed with someone?

In a conflict situation, how do you balance respect for yourself and caring for others?

What is meant by the power we all have to transform ourselves and situations?

Be inspired and reinvigorated as you practise empathising with others and transforming conflict. This is an experiential workshop, facilitated by volunteers.

Conflict is a part of everyday life ... violence doesn't have to be.

Cost: $50 full, $15 concession, some part scholarships are available.

Places limited, please book ASAP.
